

Report on recent labor protests in Iran !

(Between Jan. - Feb 2022)

Saturday, Jan. 29, the workers of education section of capitalism (teachers) in protest to low level of wages, in some schools in 33 cities have gone on strike and in some of those schools, students took part in the protests in support of teachers.

Health staff of medical universities in 16 cities in Jan. 29, who were under threat of dismissal with the decline of the fifth corona peak and due to occurrence of the sixth corona peak in the country, they wanted to strengthen their employment and living conditions.

On Saturday Jan. 29, about 200 workers of Hall no.1 of Saipa Industrial Molds Company, went on strike and shut down the machines to protest the delay of payment of wages and the lack of increasing in wages.

Saturday, Jan. 29 also, workers of Ahvaz Municipality, district 6th, went on strike for the fifth day in a row to protest the low level of wages, non-payment of insurance by the employer. In meantime, security forces along with repression forces raided the homes of a number of workers and threatened them to end the strike.

Employees of the Road and Urban development dept. of Fars province gathered in front of the Department on Saturday morning to protest the low level of their salaries.

On Jan. 30, the teachers of schools in 110 cities went on strike in protest of low wages and short-term employment contracts and didn't show themselves up in classrooms. The second day of the nationwide strike of teachers and educators, Sunday, Jan. 30, and also the teachers and educators were attacked by the repressive forces of the government of capitalism and some couple of the teachers were arrested.

About 300 drivers of the Uromieh have been on strike for more than 20 days due to non-renewal of their employment contracts by Uromieh Municipality.

South Tehran Installaton & Construction Company which is a subsidiary of the Persian Gulf Holding that for more than 4 months, it hasn't paid wages to its workers in the Majidiyeh Port project, who are building and installing shortage facilities and tanks for the export of Bidboland 2 refinery products, as well as construction within the export port. The 29th of Jan., these workers unanimously annoned that in order not to trveive all their wages and demands at once, so would not continue to produce and continue their strike. The Social Security and Welfare Organization's retirees in the cities of Mashhad, Tabriz and Kermanshah, Khorramabad and Ahvaz, Rasht and Qazvin, Isfehan and Saqez gathered to protest for their low wages.

The workers of Tabriz Tractor Manufacturing, Motorcyclists Company who started their strike in protest of the low level of wages on Saturday Jan. 29, and continued their strike and protest until Sunday, 6 February.

The teachers and retirees from more than 60 cities across the country staged mass rallies on Monday 31, Jan. the 11th day of the new round of protest.

The workers of Razi Petrochemical Company, who have been on strike since Monday, 24 Jan. in protest of the ban on work and entry of some couple of their colleagues by the company's management, continue their protests and hold daily protest marches on the company's premises.

Workers of the Sabz Ashian Apadana Company (SAPAK) who are exploited in the construction of tanks and piping under the name of Morvarid Petrochemical phase in phase two, in protest of the non-payment of arrears for months, they have been on strike and gathered since Sunday, Jan 31, and also closed the entrance gate of the company.

The strike of the workers of Tehran South Persian Gulf Holding Company entered its fifth day. These workers have been on strike since Jan. 27, to protest the non-receipt of wages for 4 months and says that they will continue to do so until wages are paid.

Workers of Shousha Municipality protested in front of Shousha Governor's Office and Municipality on Monday morning Jan. 31, due to non-receipt of their 4-months salary.

On the 31th of Jan., for the second time that month, Iranian Butya Steel workers in Kerman city, a subset of the medical giant Medico, in protest of the low level of wages, they protested. These workers say that for about 5 years now, the officials and capitalist managers have been promising wages increases, and every time we go on strike, so they start to promise that if a new production line is launched, the wages will increase, and all promises will be fulfilled. But nothing has happened .

The morning of Feb. 1, Sainqala city taxi drivers went on strike in front of the governor's office to protest low fares and wages cuts.

Workers at the Neka power plant in Mazandaran province staged a protest rally on Feb. 2, to protest the non-payment of arrears of wages by halting production's process.

Doctors in the deprived areas have been on strike since Thursday, Feb. 2, to protest their non-payment of salaries and low level of wages.

Contract workers of the Nina vegetable oil factory in Sirjan, Kerman province, gathered around on Feb. 3, to protest the non-payment of wage claims for 3 months and job insecurity.

Workers of Arak Machinery Company's projects at Kian petrochemical, went on strike to protest the non-payment of their arrears.

Workers at the Gore Jask oil refinery pipeline of the Hormozgan, gathered in front of governor's office on Saturday, Feb. 5, to protest the non-payment of 6 month's wages and unemployment.

Sepahan Cement's workers staged a protest rally on Saturday, Feb. 5, to protest job insecurity, low wages and the dismissal of their colleagues.

Workers of Tavanalimuchi company in Bushehr quit their jobs in protest of non-payment of arrears, these workers say that they have no salary that can feed their families.

A group of telecommunication workers in Isfahan province gathered in front of Isfahan Tele office on Feb. 7 to protest their dismissal.

Workers in Kut Abdullah Municipality rallied to protest the non-payment of 3 month's salary arrears.

Workers of Abangah Sanat Company, located in Isfahan Foolad Shahr, have been on strike for two days (Feb. 7th) in protest of non-payment of arrears of wages for 4 months.

A group of Khorramshahr water supply workers staged a protest rally on Tuesday, Feb. 8, to protest the non-payment of wages.

On Wednesday, Feb. 9, the workers of Pars Paper Company gathered in front of governor's office of Shousha Danial, to protest against non-payment of wages, low level of wages and dismissal of their colleagues. the workers also chanted demanding the return of the fired workers to work.

Workers of Motogen Tabriz Company entered the several days of their strike in protest of low wages, uncertainty of insurance status, hard work and harmful work duties.

A group of unemployed workers of Khuzestan Pipe Manufacturing Company held a protest rally in front of the governor's office the Thursday, Feb. 10th.

“ The anti-capitalist workers of Iran ”